MICHAEL HALL (PhD) PRESENTS: UNLEASHING YOUR POTENTIALS

November 15th - 16th 2010
Bedfordshire, England.

Are you interested in unleashing more and more of your potentials?
How much of your potentialities have you already unleashed and how much more is there yet to be tapped so that you can become even more of yourself?
How much more potential do you have mentally, emotionally, financially, relationally, in your health and fitness, in your effectiveness?

The Ultimate Self-Actualization workshop is designed to awaken your potentialities, tap into them, and facilitate the unleashing process so that you can full experience the best version of you! Are you ready for that?

If you are a coach, consultant, trainer, therapist, parent, or leader who works to facilitate the growth, personal development, and self-actualization of people, this workshop will give you training in Self-Actualization Psychology. This is the kind of psychology for generative change, positive transformations, and replicating the experience of peak performances and experiences.

What is self-actualization?

It is making actual or real all that you are. It is being fully human, fully alive. It is being an ordinary person with nothing taken away from you! It is getting over and breaking through anything that interferes with becoming all you can become. It is releasing everything that dampens and inhibits your powers.

Abraham Maslow’s definition of self-actualization:

“Even if all these needs are satisfied, we may still often expect that a new discontent and restless will soon develop, unless the individual is doing what he, individually, is fitted for. A musician must make music, an artist must paint, a poet must write. What a man can be, he must be. He must be true to his own nature. This need we call self-actualization.” (1954, p. 46)

Self-Actualization is both being and becoming — it is the fabulous experience of being at your best and living your highest passions and visions. The timid need not apply. This is for the bold, the brave, and those who have caught a vision that life can be so much more!

Are you ready to unleash more honesty in your life, more authenticity, more focus, more power, more love?
Would you like to unleash more health, more leadership, more compassion?
